Economics Major Program Requirements

Required Courses in Economics and Statistics (Professional Requirements)

- (ECON-201) Economics I
- (ECON-202) Economics II
- (Econ 211-212 may be substituted if the student has already taken them at the time of electing the major).
- (ECON-301) Microeconomics
- (ECON-321) Macroeconomics
- (ECON-350) Applied Econometrics
- (INTB-334) International Trade
- (INTB-336) International Monetary Economics
- (ECON-322) Economics Seminar
- (STAT-201) Statistics I and or (STAT-202) Statistics II OR MATH 311
  Probability and Statistics I and MATH 312 Probability and Statistics II

Choose at least 20 credits from the following courses (Professional Electives)

- (ECON-326) History of Economic Ideas
- (ECON-330) Managerial Economics
- (ECON-334) Introduction to Public Finance
- (ECON-336) Labor Economics
- (ECON-338) Industrial Organization
- (ECON-340) International Business
- (ECON-342) Economic Development
- (ECON-344) Comparative Economic Systems
- (ECON-348) Mathematical Economics
- (ECON-351) Resource and Environmental Economics
- (ECON-481) Special Topics in Economics
- (INTB-332) Economics of Multinational Corporations
- (FIN-301) Introduction to Finance
- (FIN-325) Money and Banking
- SOC 240 - Urban Sociology
- SOC 260 - Classical Social Theory
- ENVR 370 Environmental Economics
Liberal Arts and Sciences Requirements

- Humanities 101-103
- MCS (Mathematics) 101-102 or 121-122 (121-122 recommended)
- MCS (Computer Science) 161 or 171 or equivalent
- Psychology 101
- Sociology 101
- Anthropology 101
- Three courses in laboratory science
- Two courses in history
- Two courses chosen from ENGL (formerly LIT) 200-204
- Two courses in philosophy
- One course in the fine arts

Coordinate Field (Usually a Minor Chosen Under Advisement)

Additional Electives to Earn at least 187 Quarter Credits